"L'autore Robert J. Blake was born and raised in New Jersey. As a boy he made ""tons of drawings"" and used up thousands of crayons. He says, ""I even did a huge crayon mural on our hallway that was not artistically appreciated by my parents."" Sharing one large room with two older brothers was ""total chaos,"" he recalls. ""We had lots of animals - dogs, ducks, hamsters, gerbils, guinea pigs, lizards, turtles, snakes, birds, fish, and even two flying squirrels. And, oh yes, a tarantula. I think my parents were afraid to come up to our room."" Mr. Blake now resides in New Jersey with his wife and son. He works in his studio, a renovated barn on his property. Mr. Blake says, ""I would like to paint in every state in the United States and in every country in the world."" ""I hope my books lend the reader a feeling, and emotion, a new point of view, a new way to look at something that they might not have experienced otherwise."" Robert J.
